挖掘前	 A photograph of the excavation site before work. The ground is uneven, with patches of dirt and some debris. A red circle with the number '3' is overlaid on the image.
挖掘中	 A photograph showing a person in a black shirt and dark pants crouching on the ground, actively excavating the site. There is a blue tarp and some equipment in the background.
處理後	 A photograph of a large, black, cylindrical container, likely a drum, used for the final disposal of the remains. The drum has red Chinese characters written vertically on its side.
